Practice areas

Antti is litigation and arbitration partner at Frontia. He has nearly 20 years' experience of demanding dispute resolution. Antti has represented numerous Finnish and international corporations both in domestic and cross-border cases. Antti's practice covers a wide variety of complex disputes, with a particular focus on industrial projects, construction, large shareholder-agreements, joint ventures and other corporate arrangements, competition matters including administrative proceedings and private enforcement as well as white collar crime cases. Antti also sits regularly as arbitrator in ad-hoc and institutional proceedings.

Previously, Antti worked at Hannes Snellman for nearly 20 years heading the firm's dispute resolution group.
